Mrs. Wooden's Thoughts

*Thank you to all of the parents that donated items to make our Harry Potter Unit and celebration special! We have had such a wonderful time reading this book. I am sad that it is ending. Don't worry...I have another novel room transformation up my sleeve for later this school year!

*This week is full of fun activities! Most importantly, we are having GRINCH WEEK! I am so excited to bring this week to Bolin. We did it at my old school and the students loved it. Mr. Kolowski let me start it here at Bolin! Here is what it is...

Each day during the final week of school, students will participate in kind acts to celebrate the holiday season. We will also have fun dress-up days to share our holiday cheer.

Daily Kind Acts:

Monday- Make a "thank you" poster as a class for your assigned bus driver

Tuesday- Sit by a new friend at lunch

Wednesday- Make a Christmas card for the district office staff

Thursday- Give three compliments to three people in our school

Friday- Make a thank you card for your parent/guardian

Dress-Up Days:

Monday- Wear Pajamas!

Tuesday- Wear Bolin Gear/School Colors to show school spirit!

Wednesday- Wacky Wednesday!

Thursday- Wear Your Class Color! 3rd=Red, 4th=Green, 5th=Blue

Friday- Festive Friday...wear Christmas Sweaters/Shirts!

We hope this week will show students that the holiday season is more than receiving gifts; it is a time to help others and spread kindness.

*There will be no Words Their Way week! Merry Christmas!

*Students get out early on Friday at 2:25! I can't believe Christmas is almost here!
